John 2:12-22

In the Old Testament, you have the focus of God’s place being the tabernacle and then God’s place being the temple. In the New Testament, we discover that Jesus is the true tabernacle.

Exodus 40:33-34

John 1:14–15

John 2:19

To meet with God, you’re not going to go to a building at all. You’re going to go to Jesus. If you want to meet God, you meet Jesus. That’s as simply as we can put it.

God meets with his people not in places, but in the person of his Son.

All that Jesus does in establishing his power and his transcendence over the affairs of time is in itself pointing forward eventually to a new heaven and to a new earth.

2 Corinthians 5

Matthew 11:28–29

What do kings do? They rule and they reign. Where does King Jesus rule and reign? At the right hand of the Father, and in the hearts of those who trust him.
